

60 Apprentices In Our 60th Year

We are pleased to announce that NMBS are committed to recruiting 60 Apprentices into the industry during our 60th year. We are working with the BMF and LEAP to support both large and small members who wish to take advantage of the many benefits of an apprentice.

Benefits of Employing an Apprentice

95% of fees are completely covered by Government funding

Productive and effective way to grow and develop a motivated, skilled and qualified workforce.

Adapt training according to needs of your business.

Expand and upskill your workforce.

Start Your Journey Today

Express Interest

Express your interest in appointing an apprentice or recruiting an apprentice - Contact Kerry @ BMF

Determine Business Requirements

Discuss which programmes fit the business need, how many apprentices, new colleague or upskilling

Publish Vacancy

BMF supports with recruitment, NAS website, template vacancies and checks eligibility

Complete Application

Complete application form, apprentice enrolls and starts programme within 4 weeks of start date in company

If you are interested in adding an apprentice to your business, we can support the process and help get them recruited enrolled on the course and start working with your business.

Please contact kerry.wilson@bmf.org.uk or 07387239194 to start the process today.

Government Levy Summary

Levy Payer:

- Wage bill over £3m
- 0.5% of Wage bill paid into Levy
- Connect with training provider and allocate your levy funding for apprentice
- Training costs = £0
- You pay apprentice salary

(apprentice wage currently set at £5.28ph)

Non-Levy Payer:

- Wage bill under £3m
- Connect with training provider and reserve 95% funding for apprentice
- Training Costs = 5% for example - £4,000 programme, you pay £200
- You pay apprentice salary

(apprentice wage currently set at £5.28ph)

Available for England only.

Devolved Nations currently work with alternative apprenticeship frameworks and funding models – please contact kerry.wilson@bmf.org.uk for further guidance.